

The 6th Baltic Sea Region Cultural Heritage Forum

Preliminary program

From Postwar to Postmodern – 20th Century Built Cultural Heritage

Kiel 28–30 September 2016

Wednesday September 28th

09.00 Registration

The registration will also be open at the conference venue Tuesday September 27th at 17.00–19.00.

10.00 Opening of the Conference with Statement

Professor Claus von Carnap, Monitoring Group on Cultural Heritage in the Baltic Sea states

Anke Spoorendonk, Ministerin für Justiz, Kultur und Europa, Germany

Lars Amréus, Head of National Heritage Board, Sweden

10.40 Session I

History and Heritage - Postwar 20th Century Architecture in the Baltic Sea region

Keynote speech 1, Whose happiness is better? The architecture of industrial societies around the Baltic Sea

Professor Mart Kalm, Rector of Estonian Academy of Arts

Keynote speech 2, Why is the acceptance for modern architecture scarce?

Architect Sir David Chipperfield, David Chipperfield Architects, UK

12.30 Lunch

13.30 Session I continuation

The Role of Cultural Heritage and the Use of History

Professor Peter Aronsson, Linnaeus University, Sweden

Symbolic and Political Values in Postwar 20th Century Architecture in Lithuania

Doc. dr. Marija Dremaitė, University of Vilnius, Lithuania

Polish Postwar Architectural Heritage as record of Political, Social and Economic Change

Professor Małgorzata Rozbicka, Head of National Heritage Board, Poland

Lost Cultural Heritage and the Need for Collective Memory and Reconstruction

Professor Siri Skjold Lexau, University of Bergen, Norway

Final discussion with moderator Professor Mart Kalm

16.00 Coffee

16.30 Parallel sessions relating to Session I

Museum of Occupation of Latvia – Late 20th Century Built Heritage

Architect Zaiga Gaile, Zaigas Gailes Birojs, Latvia

The Notion of Controversial Heritage and Today's Variant Approaches to it

PhD Håkan Hökerberg, The Swedish Institute in Rome, Sweden

17.15 End of Day 1

19.00 Reception at Alter Güterbahnhof

The 6th Baltic Sea Region Cultural Heritage Forum

Thursday September 29th

- 09.00 Introduction
Professor Claus von Carnap, Monitoring Group on Cultural Heritage in the Baltic Sea states
- 09.05 Session II
From Postwar to Postmodern – Architecture as means of Sustainable Development
Keynote speech 3, Adaptive Re-use. The Modern Movement towards the Future
Architect Wessel de Jonge, Wessel de Jonge Architecten BNA B.V., Netherlands
Postwar 20th Century Built Cultural Heritage as Means of Sustainable Development
Senior Advisor Alexandra Warr, English Heritage/Historic England, UK
- 10.30 Coffee
- 11.00 Session II continuation
Visions of Contemporary Urban Planning and Postwar 20th Century Built Heritage
Professor Panu Lehtovuori, Tampere University of Technology, Finland
Challenges of Rural and Urban Development in the Postindustrial Era
Architect and planner Dennis Rodwell, UK
Final discussion with moderator Senior Advisor Alexandra Warr
- 12.30 Lunch
- 13.30 Parallel sessions relating to Session II and III
Reconsidering the Built Heritage of the Cold War
PhD Per Strömberg, University of Uppsala, Sweden
Protection of Postwar Architectural Heritage in Poland – Current situation and Prospects
PhD Andrzej Siwek, National Heritage Board, Poland
A contemporary approach to assessment and prioritisation of cultural heritage
Senior Advisor Cissela Génétay and Ulf Lindberg, Swedish National Heritage Board
Policy Making: Preservation Methodologies for the 20th Century Heritage in Helsinki
Architect Riitta Salastie, City Planning Department, Finland
- 14.30 Session III
Methods of Preservation and Cultural Assessment – Postwar 20th Century Built Cultural Heritage
Keynote speaker 4, Preservation of Postwar and Postmodern Architecture
Head Field Projects Susan Macdonald, The Getty Conservation Institute, USA
Between Rejection and Adoption. European Heritage Surveys for the Buildings of the Period 1950–1990
Dipl.Ing. Katja Hasche and Dr. des. Torben Kiepke Bauhaus University, Weimar, Germany
- 16.05 Coffee
- 16.30 Session III continuation
What about the Art? Challenges of Authenticity and Preservation of Art related to Buildings and Architecture
Conservator Karin Hermerén, University of Gothenburg, Sweden
Final discussion with moderator Architect and City-planner Nilsson Samuelsson, Dresden, Germany
- 17.30 Conclusion and final statement
Lars Amréus, Head of National Heritage Board, Sweden
- 18.00 End of Day 2 – evening in the harbor of Kiel

The 6th Baltic Sea Region Cultural Heritage Forum

Friday September 30th

09.00 Excursion 1:

Architecture and horticulture. Current heritage conservation in the Kurpark Malente (1964–1968) (guided by Dr. Margita M. Meyer).

Read more: <http://www.kiel-heritage-forum-2016.eu/excursions/excursion-i/>

Meeting point: Will be announced later on.

10.00 Excursion 2:

Modernism meets History. Reconstruction of the Historical City Centre of Kiel and New Buildings of Olympiazentrum Schilksee 1972 (guided by Bastian Müller).

Read more: <http://www.kiel-heritage-forum-2016.eu/excursions/excursion-ii/>

Meeting Point: Alter Markt, Kiel, nearby Nicolaichurch and the Roland-Statue.

13.00 End of excursions and of conference